INSTRUCTIONS FOR HOW TO RESPOND TO PAPERS FOR CUSTODY and/or PARENTING TIME ("VISITATION") (with or without child support)

WHEN TO USE THIS FORM:

Use this form if you want to respond to a court petition about establishing custody and parenting time with or without child support. YOU CANNOT USE THIS FORM TO ESTABLISH PATERNITY.

If the other party wants a court order for child custody and parenting time, the court will also review the current child support order. If there is no order, the court will establish child support in this case or, if the child support order needs to be changed, the court will do so in this case.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT WHEN YOU MUST FILE YOUR RESPONSE

- LOOK AT THE TIMETABLE BELOW. If the last day to respond falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday, you DO NOT count that day.
- INCLUDE WEEKENDS AND HOLIDAYS IN YOUR COUNT -- until you reach the number of days in the Timetable below. If a written response is filed with the court on time, the Petitioner CANNOT PROCEED BY DEFAULT.

IMPORTANT NOTICE ABOUT WHEN A PARTY CAN BRING A CHILD CUSTODY CASE IN THE SUPERIOR COURT IN ARIZONA:

Generally a party must have resided in Arizona with the children for at least 6 months, or Arizona must be the children's primary place of residence before filing a child custody complaint. If you have questions regarding this requirement, see a lawyer before filing.

IMPORTANT NOTICE ABOUT WHEN YOU CAN BE SUED AS A DEFENDANT/RESPONDENT IN ARIZONA FOR PATERNITY OR CHILD SUPPORT:

A defendant/respondent can be sued in Arizona on a case about establishing, enforcing, or changing a support order, or establishing paternity, if ONE of the following is true about the defendant/respondent:

- The person is a resident of Arizona;
- The person was personally served in Arizona (See packet on service to know about this.);
- The person agrees to have the case heard here and files written papers in the court case;
- The person lived with the child in this state at some time;
- The person lived in this state and provided pre-birth expenses or support for the child;
- The child lives in this state as a result of the acts or directions of the person;

- The person had sexual intercourse in this state as a result of which the child may have been conceived;
- The person signed a birth certificate that is filed in this state;
- The person did any other acts that substantially connect the person with this state (see a lawyer to help you determine this).

WARNING: Jurisdiction over the defendant/respondent is very serious. If you have any doubts about whether it was proper for the plaintiff OR petitioner to sue you in Arizona, you should see a lawyer IMMEDIATELY, and BEFORE you file any written response, answer or other court paper.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO VICTIMS OF DOMESTIC VIOLENCE:

Unfortunately, domestic violence can be part of any relationship. Domestic violence can include physical violence directed against you or your children such as hitting, slapping, pushing, or kicking. Domestic violence can also include threats of physical violence made against you and your children, or regular verbal abuse used to control you. The person who hurts you does NOT need to have been convicted of domestic violence or assault for you to be a domestic violence victim, and you do not need to have sought medical care or been admitted to a hospital to be a victim.

All court documents will request your address and phone number. If you are a victim of domestic violence, are in a domestic violence shelter, or if you do not want your address known to protect yourself or your children from further violence, you must file for an order of protection first and ask that your address not be disclosed on court papers. With that order, you do not need to put your address and phone number on your court papers. Update the clerk of the court with an address and phone number as soon as possible so that the Court can get in touch with you.

INFORMATION ABOUT PAPERS YOU SHOULD HAVE RECEIVED FROM THE OTHER PARTY WITH THE PETITION ABOUT CHILD CUSTODY AND PARENTING TIME:

SUMMONS: You have been summoned to appear in court. The summons tells you how many calendar days you have to file a response, depending on how you were served with the court papers. Be sure to file a WRITTEN RESPONSE on time. If the time for you to file a WRITTEN RESPONSE has passed, the other party must complete an Application and Affidavit for Entry of Default and send you a copy. Then you have 10 more days in which to file your WRITTEN RESPONSE. If you do not file a WRITTEN RESPONSE ON TIME a default judgment can be entered.

PETITION FOR CHILD CUSTODY, CHILD PARENTING TIME, AND CHILD SUPPORT: This is the form the other party completed to tell the court his/her side of the story about the children, pregnancy, child support, child parenting time, and child custody. Read each and every word very carefully, and decide what you want to do. Here are your choices:

1. Do nothing. This means the other party can get a court order and tell the judge his/her side of the story, without you telling your side at all. This is called a default. Even in these cases, the judge will try to decide what is best, but it is never a good idea to ignore the court proceeding and have a court order that you had no input on. See a lawyer for help before you choose this option.
2. Decide with the other party how you want to handle everything about the children, pregnancy, child support, child parenting time, and child custody. Then you and the other party file papers in the court stating your agreement on everything. This is called a Consent or Stipulation. Mediators can help you with this, and the Self-Service Center has a list of mediators, and how much they charge to help you.
3. Disagree with what the other party said in the Petition, and to file a response stating your side of the story, and how you want to handle everything. This is called a contested matter. But, even if you originally file a response, you and the other party can decide to agree on something, or everything, and file court papers for a Consent or Stipulation. Mediators can help you with this, and the Self-Service Center has a list of mediators, and how much they charge to help you. If you file a response and do not settle everything with the other party, you must be sure to file the court papers you will need to set the case for trial.

HELP ON COMPLETING YOUR WRITTEN RESPONSE TO THE PETITION TO ESTABLISH CHILD CUSTODY, PARENTING TIME AND CHILD SUPPORT:

Use this form if you want to RESPOND OR ANSWER a Petition to establish custody, parenting time and /or child support.

- A. Make sure your form states RESPONSE TO PETITION FOR CHILD CUSTODY, PARENTING TIME AND CHILD SUPPORT, OR CUSTODY AND PARENTING TIME in the upper right hand part of the page.
- B. In the top left corner of the first page, fill out the following: YOUR name; address (if not protected); city, state and zip code; telephone number; and your ATLAS number, if you are receiving or have received AFDC from the Arizona Department of Economic Security.
- C. Fill in the name of "Petitioner" and "Respondent" exactly the same way as it looks on the Petition. Do that for every document you ever file with the court from now on in this case.
- D. Use the DR case number that is stamped in the upper right-hand corner of the Petition. Do that for every document you ever file with the court from now on in this case.

GENERAL INFORMATION:

1. Fill in the name, address and date of birth for the petitioner. This is basic information about the relationship to the children for whom the person wants the custody and/or parenting time order.
2. Fill in the information about you.
3. Fill in information about all the children for whom you want custody/parenting time. The same persons should be the mother and the father for all the children for whom you want this order. If you think the children have different fathers or mothers, say so and the Petitioner will have to file a separate lawsuit.

STATEMENTS ABOUT PATERNITY AND CHILD SUPPORT

4. How was paternity established in your case? Check the box that describes how paternity was established. If none of these apply, or if only the last box applies (indicating the parties were married when the child(ren) was/were born, conceived or adopted, STOP! Do not proceed with these forms unless advised to do so by an attorney. Paternity must already be established to use these forms; if the parties were married, custody and visitation can generally only be decided as part of an action for divorce or separation.
5. What is your current situation as to child support? Check the box that describes your case.

ORDER DOES NOT NEED TO BE CHANGED: Check here if you think that the child support order you have does not need to be changed because of the custody order you want. WARNING: The judge can decide whether to change the child support order even if you do not want this.

ORDER NEEDS TO BE CHANGED: Check here if the child support order you have needs to be changed.

NO CHILD SUPPORT ORDER: If you have a paternity order only, without a child support order, the judge will make an order on the issues of custody, parenting time, and child support.

6. STATE HERE WHAT YOU SAY ABOUT PATERNITY OR SUPPORT THAT IS DIFFERENT FROM WHAT THE PETITIONER ASKED FOR. This is because the form of petition the other party used might not be from the Self-Service Center, and so it might be arranged a little differently than this form of response.

OTHER INFORMATION ABOUT THE CHILDREN: If you are aware of court cases about the children, you need to tell the court. Attach a copy of the orders about custody, parenting time, or child support to the petition, unless the orders are from the Superior Court in Maricopa County.

7. Fill out where the children from this action have been living for the past 5 years; if any children are under age 5, simply put information since their birth. Write each child's name; the address where the child lived; what dates the child lived at each address; who the child lived with; and the relationship of that person to the child. While you may not remember exact dates when you moved from one location to another, fill this information out as completely as possible.
8. You must tell the Court if you participated as a party or witness in any court case involving custody or parenting time of the child(ren). If not, mark the first box and GO ON. If there is another case, mark the second box and give as much information as possible. This information could affect you or your children's rights in this case.
9. The Court MUST know if there have been other cases involving custody, parenting time or child support of the children, even if you were not a party. If there are no other custody or parenting time cases, or you don't know of any, mark the first box and GO ON. If you have been involved in any way with this type of Court case, mark the second box and give the information where requested. Tell the Court what happened and what is going on now in the other case(s).
10. If you do not know of another person OTHER THAN THE OPPOSING PARTY who has physical custody of the child(ren) or is claiming custody or parenting time rights to any of the children, mark the first box and GO ON. If you do know of such a person, put the information here, including the child's name and the person who believes they have a custody or parenting time claim. If there is such a person, you must include the person as a respondent in this court case.
11. Since you are responding to what the other party asked for in the petition, you should now summarize for the judge how what you say ABOUT THE CHILDREN is different than what the other party said. This is because the form of complaint the other party used might not be from the Self-Service Center, and it might be arranged differently than this form of response.

OTHER STATEMENTS TO THE COURT:

12. OTHER EXPENSES: This asks for a fair division of all expenses about the children.
13. DOMESTIC VIOLENCE: This tells the Court if there was domestic violence in the relationship, and relates to a request for joint custody, if you intend to ask for joint custody. If you are not sure what this means, see the IMPORTANT NOTICE TO VICTIMS OF DOMESTIC VIOLENCE on the first page of these instructions. Mark the box corresponding to your situation.
14. GENERAL DENIAL: This tells the Court that, even if you did not answer each and everything said in the complaint, you deny what you did not address. This is extra protection for you.

REQUESTS MADE TO THE COURT FOR CUSTODY, PARENTING TIME, CHILD SUPPORT.

This section of the Complaint/Petition formally requests that the Court make Orders relating to issues such as custody, parenting time and/or support.

1. CUSTODY OF CHILDREN AND PARENTING TIME

- A. JOINT CUSTODY: If you are asking for joint custody, you must file a Joint Custody Agreement that is signed by both parents and approved by the court.
- B. SOLE CUSTODY: If you want sole custody, check the boxes that apply, including the parenting time you are asking for. Tell the court whether you want custody of the children to go to you or the other party.

PARENTING TIME: Mark one box only. You can ask that the non-custodial parent (the parent having physical custody of the child less than 50% of the time) have one of the following types of parenting time:

1. Reasonable Parenting time. This suggests an amount of parenting time appropriate to the age of the child. The Court offers suggested amounts of parenting time, but the amount can vary by agreement of both parents. Complete the Parenting Plan before you go to the judge for your final order.
 2. Supervised or No Parenting time to the Non-Custodial Parent. You may request supervised or no parenting time if the non-custodial parent cannot adequately care for the children or cannot do so without another person present. You may request this if the person not having custody abuses drugs or alcohol; is violent or abusive; or, does not have the parenting skills to care for a child without another adult present. Remember, supervised or no parenting time is not intended to punish the parent, but to protect the child. You must write in specifically why parenting time should be supervised or no parenting time allowed.
 3. Supervised Parenting time: Describe how you think this should work and who should pay for it.
 4. No Parenting time to the Non-Custodial Parent. You should mark this option only if the non-custodial parent has seriously harmed, abused, or otherwise is a serious danger to the child's physical and emotional health, or if there is a criminal Court Order stating there is to be no contact between the child and the non-custodial parent. This is a last resort to protect the child.
2. CHILD SUPPORT: Mark which party should pay child support. (Note: the box you mark should match what you asked for in the Petition).
3. MEDICAL, DENTAL, VISION CARE INSURANCE AND HEALTH CARE EXPENSES: Mark which party should be responsible for medical, dental, and vision care insurance and expenses.
4. OTHER ORDERS: Mark this box only if you have made other requests of the Court. If you mark the box, write the specific additional orders you are requesting the Court to make that were not covered elsewhere in your Petition.

OATH OR AFFIRMATION AND VERIFICATION:

Sign this form in front of a Clerk of the Court or a Notary Public. By doing so, you are telling the Court that everything contained in the Custody and/or Parenting time Complaint is true.

WHAT TO DO NEXT:

1. COPIES OF RESPONSE: After completing your "Response," make two (2) copies before you file.

2. FILING THE RESPONSE AND PAYMENT OF COURT FEE: File both copies and the original of your “Response” with the Clerk of the Court at any of the locations shown below. Be sure you file within the time limit set, or you might lose significant rights. There is a filing fee of $161.00, but if you qualify you might be able to have the fees deferred so that you can make a payment arrangement with the Court. Forms to request deferral are available at the Self-Service Center or at the filing counter. You do not need to send a copy of the fee deferral request to the Petitioner or his/her attorney. Make sure you receive both copies back from the Clerk and they have been stamped.
3. MAIL A COPY TO THE OTHER PARTY: You need to mail or hand-deliver one copy to the other party. If the person is represented by an attorney, mail or hand-deliver the copy to the attorney whose name and address appears on the Petition in the upper right hand corner.
4. If one of the parties is using the child support enforcement services of the Department of Economic Security (DES), this response must be sent to that office as well as the other party. You may serve DES by mailing a copy of the Response to:
Attorney General, Child Support Enforcement, P. O. Box 6123, Site Code 775 C, Phoenix, AZ 85005.
5. KEEP THE LAST COPY FOR YOUR RECORDS: You should always keep a copy of any document that you file with this Court.

OTHER IMPORTANT PAPERS IN THIS PACKET:

Before you get an order from the Judge, you must complete the court papers on what you want the Judge to order about child custody and parenting time (visitation), and for child support. The court papers you need, with guidelines and/or instructions, are included in this packet. These court forms, and those prepared by the other party, are what the judge will use when it is time to sign the order about custody, parenting time, and support. You can complete the papers about custody/parenting time and support now, and serve or provide copies to the other party. Or, you can complete the papers before the final court hearing date. Family Court Clerk Services of the Clerk of the Court will help you with child support calculations for the Worksheet.

SELF-SERVICE CENTER

SUPERIOR COURT OF ARIZONA IN MARICOPA COUNTY PARENTING TIME ("Visitation") GUIDELINES

1. PURPOSE

These Guidelines are designed to provide assistance to the parents in the resolution of issues relating to parenting time and to provide assistance to the court in formulating access orders when the parents are unable to reach an agreement. The underlying purpose of any such agreement or order is to provide for the best interest of each child after giving full consideration to the facts and issues that are relevant to each family.

2. USES AND LIMITATIONS

These Guidelines are designed to be used by parents, their attorneys, family counselors and the Conciliation Services of the Court. Effective use of these Guidelines requires that each parent review the Guidelines from beginning to end prior to reaching any conclusion as to the appropriate resolution of each case. These Guidelines will have limited benefit unless each parent reviews the Guidelines fully. After the Guidelines have been reviewed, the parents should develop a child care plan that will be in the best interest of their own child(ren). To use these Guidelines properly, the parties are encouraged to seek the assistance of Conciliation Services. Conciliation Services are available in the form of either counseling or mediation of custody issues, both of which are available at no charge.

To facilitate negotiation by parties, a proposed plan of parenting time should be exchanged between the parents whenever the custodial arrangement is at issue. The custodial plans should be as detailed as reasonably possible, while at the same time allowing flexibility for changes, both by the parents and by the child(ren) if sufficiently mature.

The parents should meet annually or as needed to schedule the coming year. The use of a calendar for scheduling purposes is highly recommended. The parents' work schedules and the child(ren)'s school and extracurricular activities need to be considered when developing such a plan. This is especially true for those parents who do not enjoy a traditional work week. The plan should assign responsibility for transportation, cleaning (both clothes and child(ren)), homework and meals. While parenting time should be an enjoyable and enriching experience to both parents and child(ren), it is an obligation and responsibility for each parent as well as a right and a privilege. Both parents must also have a good faith commitment to developing and carrying out a parenting time plan. Arizona law requires that the court, "shall determine custody," in every custody order and in every modification of a custody order. While a court may enter an order regarding parenting time without the direct use of the word "custody," the order must, at some point, designate one parent as the custodial parent or must designate specific periods of time that each parent is the custodial parent.

3. ASSUMPTIONS

These Guidelines are based on the premise that:

- A. Both parents are fit.
- B. Both parents desire to have an ongoing relationship with each child.
- C. Both parents are able to carry out the childcare plan.
- D. Any negotiated solution with meaningful input from the parents and, where applicable, the child(ren), is preferred to a court imposed solution.
- E. It is usually in the child(ren)'s best interest for each parent to have frequent, meaningful and continuing access to the child(ren).

- F. That the child(ren) need(s) reliability, predictability and consistency on the part of each parent.
- G. That frequent, meaningful and continuing access to each parent offers the child(ren) a sense of significance--"I am a person, I am important and I count."
- H. That the child(ren) need(s) continuous access, direct experience and openness of communication with each parent and an absence of involvement in the mutual blaming of the parents.

4. GENERAL RULES

Experience has dictated a number of common sense guidelines that should be followed in every case. Some of these guidelines are also supported by law. Except as otherwise ordered by the court:

- A. Both parents are entitled to access to records and information on the medical care of the child(ren) directly from the health care provider as well as from the other parent. Each parent should notify the other promptly of any significant medical treatment.
- B. Both parents are entitled to access to all school records of the child(ren) directly from the school as well as from the other parent. School reports should be photocopied promptly after receipt and supplied to the other parent. Both parents should be notified promptly of all child-related activities which encourage or allow parental participation.
- C. Both parents are reminded that parenting time and child support, while they may be emotionally connected, are separate legal issues. Arizona law provides that parental access may not be denied due to the failure to pay child support. It also provides that child support may not be withheld due to the failure of a parent to allow access.
- D. Parents should share with each other their residence and work addresses and phone numbers.
- E. Each parent should encourage the child(ren) to initiate telephone and/or mail contact with the other parent on a regular basis.
- F. The parents should not discuss their marital problems with the child(ren). They should not try to turn the child(ren) against the other parent by discussing with the child(ren) the shortcomings of the other parent.
- G. The parents should not attempt to buy the favor of the child(ren) with presents, special treatment, special privileges or promises.
- H. Parents should not make their child(ren) choose between the two parents.
- I. Parents should not question their child(ren) regarding the activities of the other parent.
- J. Parents should not make promises that cannot be kept.
- K. Parents should not fight with the other parent in the presence of their child(ren).
- L. Parents should be prompt with appointments with the child(ren). It is unfair to keep a child waiting, and worse, to disappoint the child(ren) by not showing up at all. When unforeseen circumstances prevent compliance within approximately 15 minutes of the scheduled time of exchange, immediate notification should be given, if possible, and appropriate alternative arrangements should be made. Alternative arrangements may include delayed scheduling, make-up access, or skipped access. For those occasional circumstances when a parent cannot meet the prearranged schedule, that parent should be responsible for the reasonable expenses incurred for child care, unless otherwise mutually agreed upon by both parents.

- M. Parents should coordinate plans regarding bedtime, discipline, homework schedule and other household rules.

5. FACTORS FOR BASIC AND OPTIONAL ACCESS

The plan for basic and optional access is designed to allow the parents, and the court if necessary, to select the proper child care plan depending upon the family circumstances. Basic access is designed to be just that, a minimum level of access which would apply to a large number of families without further modification. For families considering the optional access, consideration of the following factors are important:

- A. The geographic location of each parent;
- B. Each parent's willingness and ability to perform the child care duties associated with the child(ren), relative to the child(ren)'s stage of development such as feeding, changing, bathing, preparing the child(ren) for school, taking responsibility for the child(ren)'s homework, etc.;
- C. Each parent's ability to care for the child(ren)'s needs (historical involvement alone is not the critical focus; rather, a parent's willingness and ability to learn the necessary skills should be a determining consideration);
- D. The lack of hostility between the parents;
- E. The ability of both parents' work schedules and the child(ren)'s schedule to accommodate extended access;
- F. The child(ren)'s age(s) and strength of attachment to each parent;
- G. The child(ren)'s relationship with his/her friends; and
- H. The regular and consistent access that has been maintained by the visiting parent under the basic access plan along with a desire to increase the time commitment.

Arizona law establishes certain criteria to be met prior to the entry of an order for joint custody. Optional access which approaches an award of joint custody requires compliance with the statutory joint custody criteria.

6. PARENTING TIME

The following guidelines provide various programs for parenting time plans.

A. Infant up to Age Six Months

1. Basic Access: Ideally, access should be brief but frequent throughout the week. For those parents whose schedules permit, access is recommended three times a week at two hours each for the early months. As the child progresses to the age of six months, an additional four hours should be added during the day on the weekend. For those parents unable to have the frequent access, which is recommended, the alternative would be a four-hour access on the weekend.

2. Optional Access: Optional access includes one or more of the following: One access each week following birth and progressing to a total of three to four access times per week at four hours each with a weekend overnight suggested.

B. Six Months to Three Years

1. Basic Access: Provided regular access between parents and child(ren) has been maintained, access from six to twelve months should include the day of Saturday, and starting from twelve months to three years, access should progress up to alternate weekends (Saturday a.m. to Sunday p.m.) and one mid-week (not overnight).
2. Optional Access: Optional access includes one or more of the following: extending the weekend so that it begins on either Friday or Thursday; allowing additional weekday access; allowing a mid-week overnight access.

C. Three Years to Five Years

1. Basic Access: Alternating weekends; one mid-week (overnight optional) in alternate weeks. Holidays should be either shared or alternated.
2. Optional Access: Optional access includes one or more of the following: begin the weekend on Thursday; end the weekend on Monday or Tuesday; split or alternate the week; one to two mid-week overnights in alternating weeks.

D. Six Years to Twelve Years

1. Basic Access: Alternating weekends; one mid-week (overnight optional). Holidays should be either shared or alternated.
2. Optional Access: Optional access includes one or more of the following: begin the weekend on Thursday; end the weekend on Monday or Tuesday; split or alternate the week; one to two mid-week overnights in alternating weeks; add a third weekend per month.
3. Comment: As the child(ren) reach junior high, increasing consideration should be given to the child(ren)'s activities; a less structured and more flexible schedule is recommended. Regardless of how unstructured or flexible the schedule is, access must still occur on a regular basis.

E. Thirteen Years and Older

1. Basic Access: Alternating weekends; one mid-week (overnight optional). Holidays should be either shared or alternated.
2. Optional Access: Additional access as may be arranged between both parents and child(ren).
3. Comment: At this age, parents should make individual arrangements for each child regardless of the formal custody arrangements. All schedules, time-sharing, vacation schedules and holidays must remain flexible to accommodate the activities and interest of each child. Direct discussions are encouraged between parents and the child(ren) to formalize the parenting time plan for this age range. The basic access plan described above for this age range is simply a "minimum" plan for those families without any other agreement.

F. Child Care

When one parent will be absent from the home for an extended period of time, the child(ren) should spend the period of absence with the other parent, assuming such plan is appropriate for the child(ren). This also assumes that geographic location of both parents, the child(ren)'s age(s) and outside activities and the parent's work schedules all accommodate the arrangement.

The period of absence which triggers the exchange will vary depending upon the circumstances of the parties. As the hostility level between the parents is reduced, the period triggering the exchange is reduced. This allows additional access between parent and child(ren) and has additional advantage of eliminating the expense for extended care providers.

G. Holidays

Holidays are to be alternated or shared between the parents. The child(ren) should be with mother on Mother's Day and with father on Father's Day.

H. Extended Access/Vacation

Infants and children up to school age should be permitted to have extended access to the other parent on an increasing time basis. It is important to note that for children up to three years of age, the child(ren) should not be deprived of contact with the primary parent for more than one week at a time. For children ages three years to school age, the child(ren) ordinarily should not be deprived of access to the other parent for more than two consecutive weeks. For children six years and older, the basic vacation access should be in the range of two to four weeks with optional access extending up to ten weeks or so. For children in junior high and high school, parents should consider the comments in sections D and E above.

Each parent is entitled to two uninterrupted weeks for out-of-town travel. Except for the two weeks of out-of-town travel, the parent exercising the vacation access time is to allow the other parent the equivalent parenting time that the vacationing parent enjoys during the remainder of the year. The child(ren) should return from vacation at least one week prior to the start of school.

7. PARENT/CHILD ACCESS-LONG DISTANCE

Children under the age of five should not travel alone unless appropriate travel arrangements have been made. Access, including overnights, should be given when a parent is traveling to the community in which the child(ren) lives, provided a minimum of 48 hours notice is given to the other parent. If the parent and child(ren) travel to the other parent's community, similar access should be arranged. During periods of long distance access, access shall be given the other parent.

A. Pre-Kindergarten Age

Access should be provided during the summer and at other times with consideration given to access periods of two to six weeks.

B. Summer Access-School-Age Child

Summer access of four to ten weeks is suggested with consideration for the child(ren)'s employment, organized activities and other outside activities. Consideration should also be given to such factors as the amount of time that the child(ren) has been apart from the other parent, the facilities for the child(ren) available to the other parent who will have summer access, arrangements that are made for the child(ren)'s care during the summer access, as well as the need for establishing and/or maintaining a relationship with the parent who has summer access.

C. School Year Access-School-Age Child

School year access is suggested, provided it coincides with the child(ren)'s school holiday times.

D. Additional Access

Additional access during the school year is recommended, in particular, on the extended weekends (three-day weekends), provided that the additional access is logistically possible based upon the distance, available transportation, schedule of the children and the parties, and the lack of interference with the child's ongoing schooling.

8. FACTORS FOR LIMITATIONS

There are some families that cannot justify basic access, and reference should then be made to ARS 25-337 and other applicable laws.

9. DEFINITIONS

In the absence of an agreement of the parties or an order of the court, the following terms shall have the meanings set forth below:

- A. Day: Up to eight consecutive hours;
- B. Weekend: From 5:30 p.m. Friday to 6:00 p.m. Sunday;
- C. Mid-Week (Not Overnight): From 5:30 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. In the absence of an agreement as to the day, this shall be on Wednesday;
- D. Mid-Week (Overnight): From 5:30 p.m. to 8:00 a.m. In the absence of an agreement as to the day, this shall be Wednesday night;
- E. Holidays: This typically includes Thanksgiving, Christmas and Spring break. It also includes such other holidays or days of special observance as per the agreement of the parties or order of the court;
- F. Long Distance: Either the court or the parties may define long distance after considering the distance between the parties, the time necessary for travel, the convenience and expense of travel, the availability of resources and other alternatives.

SELF-SERVICE CENTER

JOINT CUSTODY GUIDELINES

ARS 25-331.01 defines custody as follows:

1. "Joint Custody" means joint legal custody or joint physical custody, or both.
2. "Joint Legal Custody" means the condition under which both parents share legal custody and neither parent's rights are superior except with respect to specified decisions as set forth by the court or the parents in the final judgment or order.
3. "Joint Physical Custody" means the condition under which the physical residence of the child(ren) is shared by the parents in a manner that assures that the child(ren) has/have substantially equal time and contact with both parents.
4. "Sole Custody" means the condition under which one person has legal custody.
5. "Parenting Time (formerly known as "Visitation")" means the condition under which a parent has the right to have the child(ren) physically placed with the parent and the right and responsibility to make, during that placement, routine daily decisions regarding the child(ren)'s care consistent with the major decisions made by the person having legal custody.

The written joint custody proposal pays attention to the cooperative sharing of physical care responsibilities; it is a blend of specific information with generalized plans of action. It should reflect what the parents are currently doing or what they actually plan to do. It should reflect a commitment to the child(ren)'s needs as predominant. The sharing of physical care responsibilities should not avoid or cover up disagreement by the parents on one or more issues.

NOTE: In order for the court to approve a joint custody agreement, ARS 25-332 requires the court to make the following findings:

- a. The best interests of the child(ren) are served;
- b. Each parent's rights and responsibilities for personal care of the child(ren) and for decisions in the areas of education, health care, and religious training are designated;
- c. A schedule of the physical residence of the child(ren), including holidays and school vacations is included;
- d. The plan includes a procedure for periodic review;
- e. The plan includes a procedure by which proposed changes, disputes and alleged breaches may be mediated or resolved, which may include the use of Conciliation Services or private counseling; and
- f. The parties understand that joint custody does not necessarily mean equal parenting time.

PARENTS PLEASE NOTE: Per A.R.S 25-332, an award of joint custody does not diminish the responsibility of either parent to provide for the support of the child(ren).

The following represent items that should be included in the Joint Custody Proposal:

1. The geographical location of the parents: Where do parents live relative to one another? What are their addresses? Permanent or temporary?

2. Arrangements regarding the residential requirements of the child(ren): How much time will the child(ren) spend with each parent? Be as specific as possible, including days and times.
3. Arrangements for holidays and vacations: What are your plans for summer vacation and school breaks? List specific details including dates and times.
4. Arrangements for education: How will decisions be made for educational matters? For example, if preschool age, what school will the child(ren) attend? If private school, who pays what?
5. Additional transportation arrangements: Will any additional transportation arrangements be needed? If so, what will be the responsibilities of each parent?
6. Determinations regarding child(ren)'s health care: For example, how will medical decisions be made? Who will provide insurance? How are non-insured expenses paid? Who decides on seeking non-emergency treatment? Is there a dental plan? If not, who will pay what?
7. Arrangements regarding extraordinary expenses: For example, what financial arrangements are made for the child(ren) (such as each sharing extraordinary expenditures and the parent with whom the child(ren) resides bearing the ordinary ones during the child(ren)'s residency)? A fixed amount per month?
8. Arrangements for child(ren)'s religious training, if any: For example, how will decisions be made for religious training? What, if any, are the plans for religious training?
9. Any other factors: What other arrangements (such as music lessons, sports/activity fees, camp or Scouts) are needed?

The following items shall be included in the written Joint Custody Proposal:

- A. If major changes arise, such as moving or remarriage, and the present child care arrangements are no longer feasible, the parents shall agree to renegotiate the terms of the plan with the aid of a Conciliation Services counselor or independent mediator prior to any court actions being considered.
- B. A procedure for periodic review of the joint custody plan (e.g., parents agree to review the terms of the agreement every _____).
- C. A statement that parents understand that joint custody does not necessarily mean equal parenting time.

ARIZONA CHILD SUPPORT GUIDELINES
ADOPTED BY THE ARIZONA SUPREME COURT
EFFECTIVE JANUARY 1, 2005

BACKGROUND: The Arizona Child Support Guidelines follow the Income Shares Model. The model was developed by the Child Support Guidelines Project of the National Center for State Courts. The total child support amount approximates the amount that would have been spent on the children if the parents and children were living together. Each parent contributes his/her proportionate share of the total child support amount.

Information regarding development of the guidelines, including economic data and assumptions upon which the Schedule of Basic Support Obligations is based, is contained in the February 6, 2003 report of Policy Studies, Inc., entitled Economic Basis for Updated Child Support Schedule, State of Arizona.

1. PURPOSES

- A. To establish a standard of support for children consistent with the reasonable needs of children and the ability of parents to pay.
- B. To make child support orders consistent for persons in similar circumstances.
- C. To give parents and courts guidance in establishing child support orders and to promote settlements.
- D. To comply with state law (Arizona Revised Statutes, Section 25-320) and federal law (42 United States Code, Section 651 et seq., 45 Code of Federal Regulations, Section 302.56) and any amendments thereto.

2. PREMISES

- A. These guidelines apply to all natural children, whether born in or out of wedlock, and to all adopted children.
- B. The child support obligation has priority over all other financial obligations; the existence of non-support-related financial obligations is generally not a reason for deviating from the guidelines.
- C. The fact that a custodial parent receives child support does not mean that he or she may not also be entitled to spousal maintenance.

If the court is establishing both child support and spousal maintenance, the court shall determine the appropriate amount of spousal maintenance first.

The receipt or payment of spousal maintenance shall be treated in accordance with sections 5.A and 6.A. The addition to or adjustment from gross income under these sections shall apply for the duration of the spousal maintenance award.

D. A parent's legal duty is to support his or her natural or adopted children. The "support" of other persons such as stepchildren or parents is deemed voluntary and is not a reason for an adjustment in the amount of child support determined under the guidelines.

E. In appropriate cases, a custodial parent may be ordered to pay child support.

F. Monthly figures are used to calculate the child support obligation. Any adjustments to the child support amount shall be annualized so that each month's child support obligation is increased or decreased in an equal amount, instead of the obligation for particular months being abated, increased or decreased.

EXAMPLE: At a child support hearing in a paternity action a custodial parent requests an adjustment for childcare costs (Section 9.B.1.). The parent incurs childcare costs of $150 per month but only for nine months of the year. The adjustment for childcare costs must be annualized as follows: Multiply the $150 monthly cost times the nine months that the cost is actually paid each year, for an annual total of $1,350. Divide this total by 12 months to arrive at an annualized monthly adjustment of $113 that may be added to the Basic Child Support Obligation when determining the child support order.

G. When determining the Basic Child Support Obligation under Section 8, the amount derived from the Schedule of Basic Child Support Obligations shall not be less than the amount indicated on the Schedule:

1. For six children where there are more than six children.
2. For the Combined Adjusted Gross Income of $20,000 where the actual Combined Adjusted Gross Income of the parents is greater than $20,000.

3. PRESUMPTION

In any action to establish or modify child custody, and in any action to establish child support or past support or to modify child support, whether temporary or permanent, local or interstate, the amount resulting from application of these guidelines shall be the amount of child support ordered. These include, without limitation, all actions or proceedings brought under Title 25 of the Arizona Revised Statutes (including maternity and paternity) and juvenile court actions in which a child support order is established or modified. However, if application of the guidelines would be inappropriate or unjust in a particular case, the court shall deviate from the guidelines in accordance with Section 20.

4. DURATION OF CHILD SUPPORT

Duration of child support is governed by Arizona Revised Statutes, Sections 25-320 and 25-501, except as provided in Arizona Revised Statutes, Section 25-1304.

Upon entry of an initial or modified child support order, the court shall, or in any subsequent action relating to the child support order, the court may, establish a presumptive date for the termination of the current child support obligation. The presumptive termination date shall be the last day of the month of the 18th birthday of the youngest child included in the order unless the court finds that it is projected that the youngest child will not complete high school by age 18. In that event, the presumptive termination date shall be the last day of the month of the anticipated graduation date or age 19, whichever occurs first.

The administrative income withholding order issued by the department or its agent in Title IV-D cases and an Order of Assignment issued by the court shall include the presumptive termination date. The presumptive date may be modified upon changed circumstances. An employer or other payor of funds honoring an Order of Assignment or an administrative income withholding order that includes the presumptive termination date and is for current child support only, shall discontinue withholding monies after the last pay period of the month of the presumptive termination date. If the Order of Assignment or administrative income withholding order includes current child support and arrearage payment, the employer or other payor of funds shall continue withholding the entire amount listed on the Order of Assignment or administrative income withholding order until further order.

For purposes of determining the presumptive termination date, it is further presumed:

- A. That a child not yet in school will enter 1st grade if the child reaches age 6 on or before September 1 of the year in which the child reaches age 6; otherwise, it is presumed that the child will enter 1st grade the following year; and,
- B. That a child will graduate in the month of May after completing the 12th grade.

5. DETERMINATION OF THE GROSS INCOME OF THE PARENTS

NOTE: Terms such as "Gross Income" and "Adjusted Gross Income" as used in these guidelines do not have the same meaning as when they are used for tax purposes.

- A. Gross income includes income from any source, and may include, but is not limited to, income from salaries, wages, commissions, bonuses, dividends, severance pay, pensions, interest, trust income, annuities, capital gains, social security benefits (subject to Section 26), worker's compensation benefits, unemployment insurance benefits, disability insurance benefits, recurring gifts, prizes, and spousal maintenance. Cash value shall be assigned to in-kind or other non-cash benefits. Seasonal or fluctuating income shall be annualized. Income from any source which is not continuing or recurring in nature need not necessarily be deemed gross income for child support purposes. Generally, the court should not attribute income greater than what would have been earned from full-time employment. Each parent should have the choice of working additional hours through overtime or at a second job without increasing the child support award. The court may, however, consider income actually earned that is greater than would have been earned by full-time employment if that income was historically earned from a regular schedule and is anticipated to continue into the future.

The court should generally not attribute additional income to a parent if that would require an extraordinary work regimen. Determination of what constitutes a reasonable work regimen depends upon all relevant circumstances including the choice of jobs available within a particular occupation, working hours and working conditions.

- B. Gross income does not include sums received as child support or benefits received from means-tested public assistance programs including, but not limited to, Temporary Assistance to Needy Families (TANF), Supplemental Security Income (SSI), Food Stamps and General Assistance.
- C. For income from self-employment, rent, royalties, proprietorship of a business, or joint ownership of a partnership or closely held corporation, gross income means gross receipts minus ordinary and necessary expenses required to produce income. Ordinary and necessary expenses do not include amounts determined by the court to be inappropriate for determining gross income for purposes of child support. Ordinary and necessary expenses include one-half of the self-employment tax actually paid.
- D. Expense reimbursements or benefits received by a parent in the course of employment or self-employment or operation of a business shall be counted as income if they are significant and reduce personal living expenses.
- E. If a parent is unemployed or working below full earning capacity, the court may consider the reasons. If earnings are reduced as a matter of choice and not for reasonable cause, the court may attribute income to a parent up to his or her earning capacity. If the reduction in income is voluntary but reasonable, the court shall balance that parent's decision and benefits therefrom against the impact the reduction in that parent's share of child support has on the children's best interest. In accordance with Arizona Revised Statutes Section 25-320, income of at least minimum wage shall be attributed to a parent ordered to pay child support. If income is attributed to the parent receiving child support, appropriate childcare expenses may also be attributed. The court may decline to attribute income to either parent. Examples of cases in which it may be inappropriate to attribute income include, but are not limited to, the following circumstances:
 - 1. A parent is physically or mentally disabled,
 - 2. A parent is engaged in reasonable career or occupational training to establish basic skills or reasonably calculated to enhance earning capacity,

3. Unusual emotional or physical needs of a natural or adopted child require that parent's presence in the home, or
 4. The parent is a current recipient of Temporary Assistance to Needy Families.
- F. Only income of persons having a legal duty of support shall be treated as income under the guidelines. For example, income of a parent's new spouse is not treated as income of that parent.
 - G. The court shall not take into account the impact of the disposition of marital property except as provided in Arizona Revised Statutes Section 25-320.A.6. ("Excessive or abnormal expenditures, destruction, concealment or fraudulent disposition of community, joint tenancy and other property held in common.") or to the extent that such property generates income to a parent.
 - H. The Schedule of Basic Child Support Obligations is based on net income and converted to gross income for ease of application. The impact of income taxes has been considered in the Schedule (Federal Tax including Earned Income Tax Credit, Arizona State Tax, and FICA).

6. ADJUSTMENTS TO GROSS INCOME

For purposes of this section, "children of other relationships" means natural or adopted children who are not the subject of this particular child support determination.

Adjustments to Gross Income for other support obligations are made as follows:

- A. The court-ordered amount of spousal maintenance resulting from this or any other marriage, if actually being paid, shall be deducted from the gross income of the parent paying spousal maintenance. Court-ordered arrearage payments shall not be included as an adjustment to gross income.
- B. The court-ordered amount of child support for children of other relationships, if actually being paid, shall be deducted from the gross income of the parent paying that child support. Court-ordered arrearage payments shall not be included as an adjustment to gross income.
- C. An amount shall be deducted from the gross income of a parent for children of other relationships covered by a court order for whom they are the custodial parent. The amount of the adjustment shall be determined by a simplified application of the guidelines (defined in example below).
- D. An amount may be deducted from the gross income of a parent for support of natural or adopted children of other relationships not covered by a court order. The amount of any adjustment shall not exceed the amount arrived at by a simplified application of the guidelines (defined in example below).

EXAMPLE: A parent having gross monthly income of $2,000 supports a natural or adopted minor child who is not the subject of the child support case before the court and for whom no child support order exists. To use the Simplified Application of the Guidelines, locate $2,000 in the Combined Adjusted Gross Income column of the Schedule. Select the amount in the column for one child, $420. The parent's income may be reduced up to $420, resulting in an Adjusted Gross Income of $1,580.

7. DETERMINING THE ADJUSTED GROSS INCOME OF THE PARENTS

Adjusted Gross Income is gross income minus the adjustments provided in Section 6 of these guidelines. The Adjusted Gross Income for each parent shall be established. These amounts shall be added together. The sum is the Combined Adjusted Gross Income.

8. DETERMINING THE BASIC CHILD SUPPORT OBLIGATION

Locate the income closest to the parents' Combined Adjusted Income figure on the Schedule of Basic Child Support Obligations and select the column for the number of children involved. This number is the Basic Child Support Obligation.

If there are more than six children, the amount derived from the Schedule of Basic Support Obligations for six children shall be the presumptive amount. The party seeking a greater sum shall bear the burden of proof that the needs of the children require a greater sum.

If the combined adjusted gross income of the parties is greater than $20,000 per month, the amount set forth for combined adjusted gross income of $20,000 shall be the presumptive Basic Child Support Obligation. The party seeking a sum greater than this presumptive amount shall bear the burden of proof to establish that a higher amount is in the best interests of the children, taking into account such factors as the standard of living the children would have enjoyed if the parents and children were living together, the needs of the children in excess of the presumptive amount, consideration of any significant disparity in the respective percentages of gross income for each party and any other factors which, on a case by case basis, demonstrate that the increased amount is appropriate.

9. DETERMINING THE TOTAL CHILD SUPPORT OBLIGATION

To determine the Total Child Support Obligation, the court:

- A. Shall add to the Basic Child Support Obligation the cost of the children's medical, dental and/or vision insurance coverage, if any (this provision does not imply any obligation of either parent to provide dental or vision insurance). In determining the amount to be added, only the amount of the insurance cost attributable to the children subject of the child support order shall be included. If coverage is applicable to other persons, the total cost shall be prorated by the number of persons covered. The court may decline to credit a parent for medical, dental and/or vision insurance coverage obtained for the children if the coverage is not valid in the geographic region where the children reside.

EXAMPLE: Through an employment-related insurance plan, a parent provides medical insurance that covers the parent, one child who is the subject of the child support case and two other children. Under the plan, the cost of an employee's individual insurance coverage would be $50. This parent instead pays a total of $170 for the "family option" that provides coverage for the employee and any number of dependents. Calculate the adjustment for medical insurance as follows: Subtract the $50 cost of individual coverage from the $170 paid for the "family option" to find the cost of dependent coverage. The $120 remainder then is divided by three -- the number of covered dependents. The resulting $40 is added to the Basic Child Support Obligation as the cost of medical insurance coverage for the one child.

An order for child support shall assign responsibility for providing medical insurance for the children who are the subject of the child support order. If medical insurance of comparable benefits and cost is available to both parents, the court should assign the responsibility to the parent having primary physical custody.

The court shall also specify the percentage that each parent shall pay for any medical, dental and/or vision costs of the children which are not covered by insurance. For purposes of this paragraph, non-covered "medical" means medically necessary medical, dental and/or vision care as defined by Internal Revenue Service Publication 502. Except for good cause shown, any request for payment or reimbursement of uninsured medical, dental and/or vision costs must be provided to the other parent within 180 days after the date the services occur. The parent responsible for payment or reimbursement must pay his or her share, as ordered by the court, or make acceptable payment arrangements with the provider or person entitled to reimbursement within 45 days after receipt of the request.

Both parents should use their best efforts to obtain services that are covered by the insurance. A parent who is entitled to receive reimbursement from the other parent for medical costs not covered by insurance shall, upon request of the other parent, provide receipts or other evidence of payments actually made.

B. May add to the Basic Child Support Obligation amounts for any of the following:

1 .Childcare Costs

Childcare expenses that would be appropriate to the parents' financial abilities. Expenses for childcare shall be annualized in accordance with Section 2.F. A custodial parent paying for childcare may be eligible for a credit from federal tax liability for childcare costs for dependent children. The custodial parent is the parent who has physical custody of the children for the greater part of the year. In an equal physical custody situation, neither parent shall be entitled to the credit for purposes of calculating child support. Before adding childcare costs to the Basic Child Support Obligation, the court may adjust this cost in order to apportion the benefit that the dependent tax credit will have to the parent incurring the childcare costs.

At lower income levels the head of household does not incur sufficient tax liability to benefit from the federal childcare tax credit. No adjustment should be made where the income of the custodial parent is less than indicated on the following chart:

MONTHLY GROSS INCOME OF THE CUSTODIAL PARENT
ONE CHILD	$ 2,100
TWO CHILDREN	$ 2,600
THREE CHILDREN	$ 2,700
FOUR CHILDREN	$ 2,800
FIVE CHILDREN	$ 3,050
SIX CHILDREN	$ 3,300

If the custodial parent's income is greater than indicated on the above chart, the court may adjust this cost for the federal childcare tax credit if the credit is actually claimed or will be claimed. For one child with monthly childcare costs exceeding $200, deduct $50 from the monthly childcare amount. For two or more children with total monthly childcare costs exceeding $400, deduct $100 from the monthly childcare amount. See Example One.

For one child with monthly childcare costs of $200 or less, deduct 25% from the monthly childcare amount. For two or more children with total monthly childcare costs of $400 or less, deduct 25% from the monthly childcare amount. See Example Two.

EXAMPLE ONE: For two children, a parent pays monthly childcare costs of $550 for 9 months of the year. To adjust for the expected tax credit benefit, first determine whether the average cost of childcare exceeds $400 per month. In this example, because the average cost of $413 ($550 multiplied by 9 months, divided by 12 months) exceeds the $400 maximum for two or more children, $100 per month may be subtracted from the average monthly cost. $313 ($413 less $100) may be added to the Basic Child Support Obligation for adjusted childcare costs.

EXAMPLE TWO: A parent pays monthly childcare costs of $175 for one child. Because this amount is less than the $200 maximum for one child, multiply $175 by 25% ($175 multiplied by 25% = $44). Subtract the adjustment from the monthly average ($175 - $44 = $131). The adjusted amount of $131 may be added to the Basic Child Support Obligation.

Any adjustment for the payment of childcare costs with pre-tax dollars shall be calculated in a similar manner. A percentage adjustment other than 25% may be utilized if proven by the parent paying the childcare costs.

2. Education Expenses

Any reasonable and necessary expenses for attending private or special schools or necessary expenses to meet particular educational needs of a child, when such expenses are incurred by agreement of both parents or ordered by the court.

3. Extraordinary Child

These guidelines are designed to fit the needs of most children. The court may increase the Basic Child Support Obligation to provide for the special needs of gifted or handicapped children.

4. Older Child Adjustment

The average expenditures for children age 12 or older exceed the average expenditures for all children by approximately 10%. Therefore, the court may increase child support for a child who has reached the age of 12 years by an amount up to 10% of the child support shown on the Schedule. If the court chooses to make an adjustment, the following method of calculation shall be used.

EXAMPLE: The Basic Child Support Obligation for one child, age 12, is $300. As much as $30 may be added to the Basic Child Support Obligation, for a total of $330. If not all children subject to the order are age 12 or over, the increase will be prorated as follows: assume the Basic Child Support Obligation for three children is $300. If one of the three children is age 12 or over, assign 1/3 of the Basic Child Support Obligation to the older child ($100). Up to 10% ($10) of that portion of the Basic Child Support Obligation may be added as an older child adjustment, increasing the obligation to $310. NOTE: This prorating method is limited to this section and should not be followed in Section 25.

10. DETERMINING EACH PARENT'S PROPORTIONATE SHARE OF THE TOTAL CHILD SUPPORT OBLIGATION

The Total Child Support Obligation shall be divided between the parents in proportion to their Adjusted Gross Incomes. The obligation of each parent is computed by multiplying each parent's share of the Combined Adjusted Gross Income by the Total Child Support Obligation.

EXAMPLE: Combined Adjusted Gross Income is $1,000. The father's Adjusted Gross Income is $600. Divide the father's Adjusted Gross Income by the Combined Adjusted Income. The result is the father's share of the Combined Adjusted Gross Income ($600 divided by $1,000 = 60%). The father's share is 60%; the mother's share is 40%.

11. ADJUSTMENT FOR COSTS ASSOCIATED WITH PARENTING TIME

Because the Schedule of Basic Child Support Obligations is based on expenditures for children in intact households, there is no consideration for costs associated with parenting time. When parenting time is exercised by the noncustodial parent, a portion of the costs for children normally expended by the custodial parent shifts to the noncustodial parent.

Accordingly, unless it is apparent from the circumstances that the noncustodial parent will not incur costs for the children during parenting time, when proof establishes that parenting time is or is expected to be exercised by the noncustodial parent, an adjustment shall be made to that parent's proportionate share of the Total Child Support Obligation. To calculate child support in equal custody cases, see Section 12.

For purposes of calculating parenting time days, only the time spent by a child with the noncustodial parent is considered. Time that the child is in school or childcare is not considered.

To adjust for the costs of parenting time, first determine the total annual amount of parenting time indicated in a court order or parenting plan or by the expectation or historical practice of the parents. Using the following definitions, add together each block of parenting time to arrive at the total number of parenting time days per year. Calculate the number of parenting time days arising from any block of time the child spends with the noncustodial parent in the following manner:

- A. Each block of time begins and ends when the noncustodial parent receives or returns the child from the custodial parent or from a third party with whom the custodial parent left the child. Third party includes, for example, a school or childcare provider.
- B. Count one day of parenting time for each 24 hours within any block of time.
- C. To the extent there is a period of less than 24 hours remaining in the block of time, after all 24-hour days are counted or for any block of time which is in total less than 24 hours in duration:
 - 1. A period of 12 hours or more counts as one day.
 - 2. A period of 6 to 11 hours counts as a half-day.
 - 3. A period of 3 to 5 hours counts as a quarter-day.
 - 4. Periods of less than 3 hours may count as a quarter-day if, during those hours, the noncustodial parent pays for routine expenses of the child, such as meals.

EXAMPLES:

- 1. Noncustodial parent receives the child at 9:00 p.m. on Thursday evening and brings the child to school at 8:00 a.m. on Monday morning, from which custodial parent picks up the child at 3:00 p.m. on Monday.
 - a. 9:00 p.m. Thursday to 9:00 p.m. Sunday is 3 days.
 - b. 9:00 p.m. Sunday to 8:00 a.m. Monday is 11 hours, which equals a half day.
 - c. Total is 3 ½ days.
- 2. Noncustodial parent picks the child up from school at 3:00 p.m. Friday and returns the child to school at 8:00 a.m. on Monday.
 - a. 3:00 p.m. Friday to 3:00 p.m. Sunday is 2 days.
 - b. 3:00 p.m. Sunday to 8:00 a.m. Monday is 17 hours, which equals 1 day.
 - c. Total is 3 days.

3. Noncustodial parent picks up child from soccer at noon on Saturday, and returns the child to custodial parent at 9:00 p.m. on Sunday.
 - a. Noon Saturday to noon Sunday is 1 day.
 - b. Noon Sunday to 9:00 p.m. Sunday is 9 hours, which equals $\frac{1}{2}$ day.
 - c. Total is $1\frac{1}{2}$ days.

After determining the total number of parenting time days, refer to "Parenting Time Table A" below. The left column of the table sets forth numbers of parenting time days in increasingly higher ranges. Adjacent to each range is an adjustment percentage. The parenting time adjustment is calculated as follows: locate the total number of parenting time days per year in the left column of "Parenting Time Table A" and select the adjustment percentage from the adjacent column. Multiply the Basic Child Support Obligation determined under Section 8 by the appropriate adjustment percentage. The number resulting from this multiplication then is subtracted from the proportionate share of the Total Child Support Obligation of the parent who exercises parenting time.

PARENTING TIME TABLE A
Number of Parenting Time Days	Adjustment Percentage
0 - 3	0
4 - 20	.012
21 - 38	.031
39 - 57	.050
58 - 72	.085
73 - 87	.105
88 - 115	.161
116 - 129	.195
130 - 142	.253
143 - 152	.307
153 - 162	.362
163 - 172	.422
173 - 182	.486

EXAMPLE: The Basic Child Support Obligation from the Schedule is $425 for two children.

After making all applicable adjustments under Section 9, the Total Child Support Obligation is $500 and the noncustodial parent's proportionate share is 60%, or $300. The noncustodial parent has parenting time with the children a total of 100 days. On "Parenting Time Table A", the range of days for this amount of parenting time is from 88 to 115 days. The corresponding adjustment percentage is .161. Multiply the $425 Basic Child Support Obligation by .161 OR 16.1%. The resulting $68 is subtracted from $300 (the noncustodial parent's proportionate share of the Total Child Support Obligation), adjusting the child support obligation to $232.

As the number of parenting time days approaches equal time sharing (143 days and above), certain costs usually incurred only in the custodial household are assumed to be substantially or equally shared by both parents. These costs are for items such as the child's clothing and personal care items, entertainment and reading materials. If this assumption is rebutted by proof, for example, that such costs are not substantially or equally shared in each household, only "Parenting Time Table B" must be used to calculate the parenting time adjustment for this range of days. Locate the total number of parenting time days per year in the left column of "Parenting Time Table B" and select the adjustment percentage from the adjacent column. Multiply the Basic Child Support Obligation determined under Section 8 by the appropriate adjustment percentage. The number resulting from this multiplication then is subtracted from the proportionate share of the Total Child Support Obligation of the parent who exercises parenting time.

PARENTING TIME TABLE B
Number of Parenting Time Days	Adjustment Percentage

12. EQUAL CUSTODY

If the time spent with each parent is essentially equal, the expenses for the children are equally shared and adjusted gross incomes of the parents also are essentially equal, no child support shall be paid. If the parents' incomes are not equal, the total child support amount shall be divided equally between the two households and the parent owing the greater amount shall be ordered to pay what is necessary to achieve that equal share in the other parent's household.

EXAMPLE: After making all applicable adjustments under Sections 9 and 13, the remaining child support obligation is $1500. The parents' proportionate shares of the obligation are $1000 and $500. To equalize the child support available in both households, deduct the lower amount from the higher amount ($$1000 - $500 = $500$), then divide the balance in half ($$500 \div 2 = \250). The resulting amount, $250, is paid to the parent with the lower obligation.

13. ADJUSTMENTS FOR OTHER COSTS

If a parent pays a cost under Section 9.A. or 9.B. (except 9.B.4.), deduct the cost from that parent's Proportionate Share of income to arrive at the Preliminary Child Support Amount.

EXAMPLE: A noncustodial parent pays for medical insurance through his or her employer. This cost is added to the Basic Child Support Obligation pursuant to section 9.A., then prorated between the parents to arrive at each parent's proportionate child support obligation. Because the cost has already been paid to a third party (the insurance company), the cost must be deducted from the noncustodial parent's child support obligation because this portion of the child support obligation has already been paid.

14. DETERMINING THE CHILD SUPPORT ORDER

The court shall order the noncustodial parent to pay child support in an amount equal to his or her proportionate share of the Total Child Support Obligation. The custodial parent shall be presumed to spend his or her share directly on the children.

EXAMPLE: On the Schedule, the Basic Child Support Obligation for a Combined Adjusted Gross Income of $1,500 for one child is $329. To this the court adds $33 because the child is over 12 years of age (10% in this example). The Total Child Support Obligation is $362. The father's share is 60% of $362, or $217. The mother's share is 40% of $362, or $145.

Custody is granted to the mother and under the court-approved parenting plan, parenting time will be exercised by the father a total of 100 days per year resulting in an adjustment of $53 ($$329 \times 16.1\%$). After adjusting for parenting time, the father's share is $164 ($\217 less $$53$). The father shall pay the child support amount of $164 per month. The value of the mother's contribution is $145, and she spends it directly on the child.

15. SELF SUPPORT RESERVE TEST

In each case, after determining the child support order, the court shall perform a Self Support Reserve Test to verify that the noncustodial parent is financially able both to pay the child support order and to maintain at least a minimum standard of living, as follows:

Deduct $775 (the Self Support Reserve amount) from the noncustodial parent's Adjusted Gross Income, except that the court may deduct from such parent's Adjusted Gross Income for purposes of the Self Support Reserve Test only, court-ordered arrears on child support for children of other relationships or spousal maintenance, if actually paid. If the resulting amount is less than the child support order, the court may reduce the current child support order to the resulting amount after first considering the financial impact the reduction would have on the custodial parent's household. The test applies only to the current child support obligation, but does not prohibit an additional amount to be ordered to reduce an obligor's arrears.

EXAMPLE: Before applying the Self Support Reserve Test, the child support order is calculated under the guidelines to be $175. The Adjusted Gross Income of the noncustodial parent is $850.

Subtracting the self-support reserve amount of $775 from the noncustodial parent's adjusted gross income of $850 leaves $75. Because this resulting amount is less than the $175 child support order, the court may reduce the child support order to the resulting amount. However, before making any reduction, the court shall examine the self-support capability of the non-paying parent, using the same Self Support Reserve Test applied to the noncustodial parent.

In this example, the non-paying parent's proportionate share of the total child support obligation is calculated under the guidelines to be $200. This parent's adjusted gross income is $892.

Subtracting the self support reserve of $775 from the non-paying parent's adjusted gross income of $892 leaves $117. Because this resulting amount is less than the parent's proportionate share of the Total Child Support Obligation, it is evident that both parents have insufficient income to be self supporting. In this situation, the court has discretion to determine whether and in what amount the child support order (the amount the noncustodial parent is ordered to pay) may be reduced.

16. MULTIPLE CHILDREN, DIVIDED CUSTODY

When each parent is granted physical custody of at least one of the parties' children, each parent is obligated to contribute to the support of all the children. However, the amount of current child support to be paid by the parent having the greater child support obligation shall be reduced by the amount of child support owed to that parent by the other parent.

EXAMPLE: (For simplicity, this example does not consider parenting time.) Combined Adjusted Gross Income is $3,000 per month. Father's gross income is $1,000 per month (33.3%) and he has custody of one child. Mother's gross income is $2,000 per month (66.6%) and she has custody of two children.

Prepare a Parent's Worksheet to determine child support for children in the mother's household. Locate the Combined Adjusted Gross Income figure of $3,000 on the Schedule. Select the child support figure in the column for the two children in this household, $817. The father's share is 33.3% of $817 or $272.

Prepare a Parent's Worksheet to determine child support for the child in the father's household. Locate the Combined Adjusted Gross Income figure of $3,000. Select the child support figure in the column for the one child in this household, $589. The mother's share is 66.6% of $589, or $392.

The mother is obligated to pay the father $392 for child support. This amount is reduced by the $272 obligation owed by the father to the mother. Thus, the mother shall pay $120 per month.

17. CHILD SUPPORT ASSIGNED TO THE STATE

If child support has been assigned to the state under Arizona Revised Statutes Section 46-407, the obligation of a parent to pay child support shall not be offset by child support arrearages that may be owed to that parent.

18. TRAVEL EXPENSES ASSOCIATED WITH PARENTING TIME

The court may allocate travel expenses of the child associated with parenting time in cases where one-way travel exceeds 100 miles. In doing so, the court shall consider the means of the parents and may consider how their conduct (such as a change of residence) has affected the costs of parenting time. To the extent possible, any allocation shall ensure that the child has continued contact with each parent. A parent who is entitled to receive reimbursement from the other parent for allocated parenting time expenses shall, upon request of the other parent, provide receipts or other evidence of payments actually made. The allocation of expenses does not change the amount of the child support ordered.

19. GIFTS IN LIEU OF MONEY

Once child support has been ordered by the court, the child support is to be paid in money. Gifts of clothing, etc. in lieu of money are not to be offset against the child support order except by court order.

20. DEVIATIONS

A. The court shall deviate from the guidelines, i.e., order child support in an amount different from that which is provided pursuant to these guidelines, after considering all relevant factors, including those set forth in Arizona Revised Statutes Section 25-320, and applicable case law, only if all of the following criteria are met:

1. Application of the guidelines is inappropriate or unjust in the particular case,
2. The court has considered the best interests of the child in determining the amount of a deviation. A deviation that reduces the amount of child support paid is not, by itself, contrary to the best interests of the child,
3. The court makes written findings regarding 1. and 2. above in the Child Support Order, Minute Entry or Child Support Worksheet,
4. The court shows what the order would have been without the deviation, and
5. The court shows what the order is after deviating.

B. The court may deviate from the guidelines based upon an agreement of the parties only if all of the following criteria are met:

1. The agreement is in writing or stated on the record pursuant to the Arizona Rules of Civil Procedure, Rule 80(d),

2. All parties have entered into the agreement with knowledge of the amount of child support that would have been ordered under the guidelines but for the agreement,
3. All parties have entered into the agreement free of duress and coercion, and
4. The court complies with the requirements of Section 20.A.

21. THIRD-PARTY CARE GIVERS

When a child lives with a third-party caregiver by virtue of a court order, administrative placement by a state agency or under color of authority, the third-party caregiver is entitled to receive child support payments from each parent on behalf of the child.

22. COURT'S FINDINGS

The court shall make findings in the record as to: Gross Income, Adjusted Gross Income, Basic Child Support Obligation, Total Child Support Obligation, each parent's proportionate share of the child support obligation, and the child support order. The findings may be made by incorporating a worksheet containing this information into the file.

If the court attributes income above minimum wage income, the court shall explain the reason for its decision.

The child support order shall be set forth in a sum certain and start on a date certain. A new child support order shall be filed upon any change in the amount or due date of the child support obligation.

23. EXCHANGE OF INFORMATION

The court shall order that every twenty-four months, financial information such as tax returns, financial affidavits, and earning statements be exchanged between the parties. Unless the court has ordered otherwise, at the time the parties exchange financial information, they shall also exchange residential addresses and the names and addresses of their employers.

24. MODIFICATION

A. Standard Procedure

Pursuant to Arizona Revised Statutes Sections 25-327 and 25-503, either parent or the state Title IV-D agency may ask the court to modify a child support order upon a showing of a substantial and continuing change of circumstances.

B. Simplified Procedure

Either parent or the state Title IV-D agency may request the court to modify a child support order if application of the guidelines results in an order that varies 15% or more from the existing amount. A fifteen percent variation in the amount of the order will be considered evidence of substantial and continuing change of circumstances. A request for modification of the child support amount must be accompanied by a completed and sworn "Parent's Worksheet for Child Support Amount," and documentation supporting the incomes if different from the court's most recent findings regarding income of the parents. If the party requesting the modification is unable to provide documentation supporting the other party's income, the requesting party shall indicate that the income amount is attributed/estimated and state the basis for the amount listed. The state Title IV-D agency may submit a parent's worksheet.

The simplified procedure also may be used by either parent or the state Title IV-D agency to modify a child support order to assign or alter the responsibility to provide medical insurance for a child who is the subject of a child support order. A modification of the medical assignment or responsibility does not need to vary by 15% or more from the existing amount to use the simplified procedure.

A copy of the request for modification of child support and the "Parent's Worksheet for Child Support Amount," including supporting documentation, showing that the proposed child support amount would vary 15% or more from the existing child support order shall be served on the other parent, or on both parents if filed by the state Title IV-D agency, pursuant to Rules 4.1 and 4.2, Rules of Civil Procedure.

If the requested modification is disputed, the parent receiving service must request a hearing within 20 days of service. If service is made outside the state, as provided in Rule 4.2, Rules of Civil Procedure, the parent receiving service must request a hearing within 30 days of service.

A party requesting a hearing shall file a written request for hearing accompanied by a completed and sworn "Parent's Worksheet for Child Support Amount." Copies of the documents filed, together with the notice of hearing, shall be served on the other party and, if appropriate, the state Title IV-D agency by first class mail not less than 10 judicial days prior to the hearing.

Upon proof of service and if no hearing is requested within the time allowed, the court will review the request and enter an appropriate order or set the matter for hearing. If any party requests a hearing within the time allowed, the court shall conduct such hearing. No order shall be modified without a hearing if one is requested.

The notice provision of Rule 55, Rules of Civil Procedure, does not apply to this simplified modification procedure.

A request to modify child support, request for a hearing and notice of hearing, "Parent's Worksheet for Child Support Amount" and child support order filed or served pursuant to this subsection must be made using forms approved by the Arizona Supreme Court or substantially similar forms.

Approved forms are available from the Clerk of the Superior Court

25. EFFECT OF CESSATION OF CHILD SUPPORT FOR ONE CHILD

If child support for more than one child was ordered under these guidelines and thereafter the duty to support one of the children stops, the order is not automatically reduced by that child's share. To obtain a modification to the child support order, a request must be made in writing to the court to recalculate the child support obligation pursuant to these guidelines. The procedure specified in Section 24 may be used for this purpose.

EXAMPLE: The child support order for a Combined Adjusted Gross Income of $1,500, with four children is $600. One child graduates from high school and turns 18. In determining the new child support amount, do not deduct one-fourth of the order for a new order of $450. Instead, determine a new child support order by applying the guidelines. (NOTE: This method varies from the one used in Section 9.B.4.).

26. INCOME AND BENEFITS RECEIVED BY OR ON BEHALF OF A CHILD

- A. Income earned or money received by a child from any source other than court-ordered child support shall not be counted toward either parent's child support obligation except as stated herein. However, income earned or money received by or on behalf of a person for whom child support is ordered to continue past the age of majority pursuant to Arizona Revised Statute Sections 25-320.B and 25-809.F may be credited against any child support obligation.
- B. Benefits, such as Social Security Disability or Insurance, received by a custodial parent on behalf of a child, as a result of contributions made by the parent paying child support shall be credited as follows:
 - 1. If the amount of the child's benefit for a given month is equal to or greater than the paying parent's child support obligation, then that parent's obligation is satisfied.
 - 2. Any benefit received by the child for a given month in excess of the child support obligation shall not be treated as an arrearage payment nor as a credit toward future child support payments.
 - 3. If the amount of the child's benefit for a given month is less than the parent's child support obligation, the parent shall pay the difference unless the court, in its discretion, modifies the child support order to equal the benefits being received at that time.
- B. Except as otherwise provided in section 5.B, any benefits received directly, and not on behalf of a child, by either the custodial parent or the parent paying child support as a result of his or her own contributions, shall be included as part of that parent's gross income.

27. FEDERAL TAX EXEMPTION FOR DEPENDENT CHILDREN

In any case in which the current child support obligation is at least $1,200 per year, there should be an allocation of the federal tax exemptions applicable to the minor children which as closely as possible approximates the percentages of child support being provided by each of the parents. If it is determined that a party who is otherwise entitled to the dependency exemption based upon the above percentages will not derive a tax benefit from claiming the dependency exemption, the exemption should be allocated to the other party. The allocation of the exemptions shall be conditioned upon payment by December 31 of the total court-ordered monthly child support obligation for the current calendar year and any court-ordered arrearage payments due during that calendar year for which the exemption is to be claimed. If these conditions have been met, the custodial parent shall execute the necessary Internal Revenue Service forms to transfer the exemptions. If the noncustodial parent has paid the current child support, but has not paid the court-ordered arrearage payments, the noncustodial parent shall not be entitled to claim the exemption.

EXAMPLE: Noncustodial parent's percentage of gross income is approximately 67% and custodial parent's percentage is approximately 33%. All payments are current. If there are three children, the noncustodial parent would be entitled to claim two and the custodial parent would claim one. If there is only one child, the noncustodial parent would be entitled to claim the child two out of every three years, and the custodial parent would claim the child one out of every three years.

For purposes of this section only, a noncustodial parent shall be credited as having paid child support that has been deducted on or before December 31 pursuant to an order of assignment if the amount has been received by the court or clearinghouse by January 15 of the following year.

28. CHILD SUPPORT ARREARS

- A. When setting an amount for a payment on arrears, the court should take into consideration that interest accrues on the principal balance. If the court sets a payment on arrears less than the amount of the accruing monthly interest, the court shall make a finding why the amount is less than the accruing monthly interest.

Upon a showing of substantial and continuing changed circumstances, the court may adjust the amount of payment on arrears.

- B. When a current child support obligation terminates, before adjusting the Order of Assignment to an amount less than the current child support amount and the payment on arrears, the court shall consider the total amount of arrears and the accruing interest, and the time that it will take the obligor to pay these amounts.

29. EFFECTIVE DATE AND GROUNDS FOR MODIFICATION

- A. Except for defaults or as otherwise agreed upon by the parties, all child support orders entered after December 31, 2004, shall be made pursuant to these guidelines, whether they be original orders or modifications of pre-existing orders, unless the court determines otherwise based on good cause shown. In cases of default, the guidelines in effect at the time of filing the action will be used. The parties may agree to use either the guidelines in effect at the time of filing the action or those in effect at the time the order is entered.

- B. A substantial variance between an existing child support order and an amount resulting from application of the new guidelines may be considered evidence of a substantial and continuing change of circumstances for purposes of a modification. A variance of at least 15% would be evidence of a substantial and continuing change of circumstances.

PARENT'S WORKSHEET INSTRUCTIONS

This worksheet provides the information the court needs to determine child support amounts in accordance with Arizona's Child Support Guidelines. You may get a copy of the Guidelines from the Self-Service Center or on the Internet at http://www.superiorcourt.maricopa.gov/ssc/forms/alpha_list.asp (under "Family Law - Instructions").

COMPLETE THIS WORKSHEET IF:

- You are a party to a court action to establish a child support obligation or to modify an existing order for child support.

Need help with calculations? You may use the online calculator at the Supreme Court's website at <http://www.supreme.state.az.us/childsup>, where you enter the numbers and it does the calculating. Assuming your computer is connected to a printer, the online calculator will provide you with a printout that you may use in place of this form. You may also call 602-506-3762 for an appointment for free assistance (in English or Spanish) at the Phoenix, Surprise, or Mesa courthouse locations. Ask for the "Calculations Department".

TO COMPLETE THIS WORKSHEET YOU WILL NEED TO KNOW:

- Your case number.
- Your monthly gross income and that of the other parent.
- The monthly cost of medical insurance for the children who are the subject of this action.
- Monthly childcare amounts paid to others.
- The number of days the child(ren) spend with the non-custodial parent.
- Monthly obligations of yourself and the other parent for child support or court-ordered spousal maintenance/support.

FOLLOW THESE INSTRUCTIONS WHICH ARE NUMBERED TO MATCH THE IDENTIFYING NUMBERS IN PARENTHESES ON THE FORM. TYPE OR PRINT NEATLY USING BLACK INK. The number in brackets after the instructions tells you where to look in the Guidelines for this item, for example, [Guidelines 5].

BASIC INFORMATION

- (1) Type or print the information requested at top left for the person who is filing this form. Check the appropriate box to indicate whether you are the Petitioner or Respondent in this case, and also whether you are represented by an attorney. (The spaces marked "for "Attorney Name", "Bar No.", etc, are used only if an attorney is preparing this form.)
- (2) Type or print the name of the county in which this worksheet is being filed. (This may already be printed on the form.)
- (3) Type or print the name of the persons shown as the Petitioner and the Respondent on the original petition to establish support or on the Order that established support.
- (4) Type or print your case number and the ATLAS number. If you do not have a case number, leave this item blank. If you do not have an ATLAS number, leave this item blank.

- (5) Enter the number of children from this relationship for whom support is being sought in this court action.
- (6) Check the box to indicate which parent has "primary custody". If not stated directly in a Court Order, who does(do) the child (or children) live with most of the time?
- (7) Check the box to indicate which parent is completing this form.
- (8) Where did you get the figures you are supplying for the other party? Check the box to indicate whether those numbers are Actual, Estimated or Attributed. [See Guidelines 5.E.] Examples of ESTIMATED income: He was promoted to supervisor and I know that position pays more; she has the same job as my sister, who works at the same place and makes this amount. Example of ATTRIBUTED income: My ex-wife was a secretary earning $1500/month. Now she has remarried and is staying home as a homemaker.

MONTHLY GROSS INCOME

- Terms such as "gross income" and "adjusted gross income" as used here do not have the same meaning as when they are used for tax purposes.
 - "Gross Income" is not your "take home pay", it is the higher amount shown before any deductions are taken out of your check.
 - If you are converting a weekly "gross income" figure to a "monthly gross income" figure, multiply the weekly amount by 4.33 (52 weeks divided by 12 months = 4.33 average weeks in a month).

- (9) Type or print the total amount of your Gross Income each month. Gross income means the amount before taxes and other deductions are taken out. For income from self-employment, rent, royalties, proprietorship of a business, joint ownership of a partnership or closely held corporation, gross income means gross receipts minus ordinary and necessary expenses required to produce income. What you include as "ordinary and necessary expenses" may be adjusted by the court, if deemed inappropriate for determining gross income for child support. Ordinary and necessary expenses include one-half of the self-employment tax actually paid.

Gross Income includes monies from:

- | | |
|---|---|
| • Salaries | • Self-employment |
| • Bonuses | • Severance Pay |
| • Worker's Compensation Benefits | • Unemployment Insurance Benefits |
| • Wages | • Income from a Business |
| • Dividends | • Pensions |
| • Disability Insurance (including Social Security disability) | • Rental Income |
| • Annuities | • Prizes |
| • Royalties | • Social Security Benefits |
| • Commissions | • Trust Income |
| • Capital Gains | • Recurring Gifts |
| • Interest | • Spousal Maintenance (alimony) (Item 11) |

Gross Income does not include benefits from public assistance programs such as Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF), Supplemental Social Security Income (SSI), Food Stamps, and General Assistance (GA); and, it does not include child support payments received.

Also type or print the total monthly gross income for the other parent, to the best of your knowledge. If a parent is unemployed or underemployed, you may ask the court to attribute income to that parent by entering the amount of what you think that parent would be earning if he or she worked at full earning capacity. The court shall presume, in the absence of contrary testimony, that a non-custodial parent is capable of full-time employment at least at the federal adult minimum wage. [Guidelines 5.E.] This presumption does not apply to non-custodial parents under the age of eighteen who are attending high school. If gross income is attributed to the parent receiving support, appropriate childcare expenses may also be attributed at Item 18.

If you are completing this Parent's Worksheet as part of a modification proceeding and your income is different from the court's most recent findings, you must attach documentation to verify your current income. The documentation should include: your most recent tax return, W-2, or 1099 forms and your most recent paycheck stub showing year-to-date information. If these are not available, provide other documentation such as a statement of earnings from your employer showing year-to-date income.

If you are completing this Parent's Worksheet as part of a modification proceeding and the income you show for the other party is different from that listed on the court's most recent findings regarding income of that parent, you must attach documentation of the amount or mark the box in Item 8 to show that the income amount is estimated or attributed and explain the basis for the amount shown.

ADJUSTMENTS TO MONTHLY GROSS INCOME

(10-11) Type or print the total monthly amount of court-ordered spousal maintenance/alimony you and/or the other parent actually pay to a former spouse or receive from a former spouse. Also, the amount that is paid or received or will be paid or received in this court case each month. Spousal maintenance/alimony paid is a deduction from gross income. Spousal maintenance/alimony received is an addition to gross income. [Guidelines 2.C. and 6.A.]

(12) Type or print the total amount of court-ordered child support you and/or the other parent actually pay [Guidelines 6.B.] each month for children of other relationships, And/Or, if you and/or the other parent are the custodial parent of children of other relationships, based on a "simplified application of the Guidelines", determine an adjustment to enter based on the amount of court-ordered child support you "contribute". [Guidelines 6.C.] Court-ordered arrearage payments are not included in either case.

EXAMPLE (copied directly from the Guidelines):

A parent having gross monthly income of $2,000 supports a natural or adopted minor child who is not the subject of the child support case before the court and for whom no child support order exists. To use the Simplified Application of the Guidelines, locate $2,000 in the Combined Adjusted Gross Income column of the Schedule. Select the amount in the column for one child, $420. The parent's income may be reduced up to $420, resulting in an Adjusted Gross Income of $1,580.

(13) You may ask the court to consider the financial obligation you have to support other natural or adopted children for whom there is no court order requiring you to pay support. If you choose to do this, the adjustment amount you may request is determined by a "simplified application of the guidelines". On the Schedule of Basic Child Support Obligations, find the amount that is closest to the adjusted gross income amount of the parent requesting an adjustment. Go to the column for the number of children in question. Enter the amount shown there in Item 13. [Guidelines 6.D.]

(14) Adjusted Gross Income. For each parent, add or subtract the numbers in Items 10 through 13 from the number in Item 9. Write the results for each parent on the line in Item 14. This is the Adjusted Monthly Gross Income for each parent. [Guidelines 7]

COMBINED ADJUSTED MONTHLY GROSS INCOME

(15) Add the two numbers in Item 14 together (the one for the father and the one for the mother). This total is the Combined Adjusted Monthly Gross Income.

BASIC CHILD SUPPORT OBLIGATION

(16) On the Schedule of Basic Child Support Obligations, locate the amount that is closest to the Combined Adjusted Monthly Gross Income listed in Item 15. Go to the column for the number of children listed in Item 5. This amount is your Basic Child Support Obligation, enter it in Item 16. [Guidelines 8]

PLUS COSTS FOR NECESSARY EXPENSES

Place in the column for the parent paying the expenses.

- (17) Type or print the monthly dollar amount of that portion of the insurance premium that is or will be paid for court-ordered medical, dental and/or vision care insurance for the child(ren) who is/are the subject(s) of this order. [Guidelines 9.A.]
- (18) If the parent with primary physical custody is working or if you have attributed income to that parent in Item 9, type or print the monthly cost of work-related child care that parent pays. If these costs vary throughout the year, add the amounts for each month together and divide by 12 to annualize the cost. [Guidelines 9.B.1.] (See Guidelines for rules and chart concerning income).
- If the non-custodial parent pays for work-related childcare during periods of physical custody, the amount paid by that parent may also be included here (each month's amount added together and divided by 12 to annualize the cost)..
- (19) Type or print the monthly costs of reasonable and necessary expenses for special or private schools and special educational activities. These expenses must be agreed upon by both parents or ordered by the court. [Guidelines 9.B.2.]
- (20) If any of the children for whom support is being ordered are gifted or handicapped and have special needs that are not recognized elsewhere, the additional monthly cost of meeting those needs should be entered here. [Guidelines 9.B.3.]
- (21) CHILDREN 12 AND OVER. If there are no children 12 or over, enter "0" or "N/A" and SKIP to Item 22. Average expenditures for children age 12 or older are approximately 10% higher than those for younger children, therefore the Guidelines call for an adjustment of up to a maximum of 10% to account for these higher costs. If support is being determined for children 12 or older, in the first blank, enter the number of children 12 or older. In the next blank enter how many percent (one, to a maximum of ten percent) you think the amount of child support should be adjusted (increased) due to the child or children being 12 or older.

If all children are 12 or over:

- Multiply the dollar amount from (16), the Basic Child Support Obligation, by the (up to 10) percent increase, which results in the monthly dollar amount of increase.
- Enter this amount for Item 21. The highest possible increase would be 10% of the basic child support obligation. [Guidelines 9.B.4.]

If at least one, but not all children are 12 or older:

- Divide the basic support obligation (Item 16) by the total number of children.
- Multiply that figure by the number of children 12 or over.
- Then multiply the result by the adjustment percentage (up to 10%), and enter this amount for Item 21. [Guidelines 9.B.4.]

EXAMPLE A: All children 12 or older, Basic Child Support Obligation $300, and 10% Adjustment:

Multiply Basic Child Support Obligation by % Adjustment: $$300 \times .10 = \30.00

EXAMPLE B: Three children, Two 12 or older, Basic Child Support Obligation $300, 10% Adjustment:

Divide Basic Child Support Obligation by total number of children: $$300 / 3 = \100

Multiply answer by the number of children 12 and older: $$100 \times 2 = \200

Multiply result by the Adjustment Percentage: $$200 \times .10 = \20.00

- (22) Add the amounts from Items 17, 18, 19, 20 and 21, including both the amounts for you and the amounts for the other parent. Enter the total amount on the line in Item 22.

TOTAL CHILD SUPPORT OBLIGATION

- (23) Add the amounts from Items 16 and 22. Enter the total amount on the line in Item 23. This is the Total Child Support Obligation amount.

EACH PARENT'S PERCENTAGE (%) OF COMBINED INCOME [Guidelines 10]

- (24) For each parent, divide the amount written in Item 14 (Adjusted Gross Income) by the amount written in Item 15 (Combined Adjusted Gross Income). This will probably give you a decimal point answer less than 100%. However, if one parent earns all of the income for the family, this number will be 100%.

EXAMPLE: Item 14 = $600
 Item 15 = $1000 $600 divided by $1,000 = .60 or 60%

EACH PARENT'S SHARE OF THE TOTAL CHILD SUPPORT OBLIGATION

- (25) For each parent, multiply the number in Item 23 by the number for that parent in Item 24. This equals the dollar amount of each parent's share of the total child support obligation.

EXAMPLE: Item 23 = $189
 Item 24 = 60% $189 x .60 = $113.40

ADJUSTMENT FOR COSTS ASSOCIATED WITH PARENTING TIME (VISITATION) (for NON-Custodial Parent)

- (26) If time with each parent is essentially equal, neither party receives a parenting time adjustment and you may SKIP to Item 27. [Guidelines 12]

Based on the information below, check the box to indicate whether "Parenting Time Table A" or "Parenting Time Table B" applies to the situation regarding the parent who does not have PRIMARY custody, that is, the parent that the children do NOT live with – or live with the LEAST amount of time.

To adjust for costs associated with parenting time, first determine the total number of parenting time days indicated in a court order or parenting plan or by the expectation or past practice of the parents. Using the definitions below, add together each block of parenting time to arrive at the total number of parenting time days per year. Only the time spent by a child with the non-custodial parent is considered. Time that the child is in school or in childcare is not considered.

For purposes of calculating parenting time/visitation days:

- A. A period of 12 hours or more counts as one day.
- B. A period of 6 to 11 hours counts as a half-day.
- C. A period of 3 to 5 hours counts as a quarter day.
- D. Periods of less than 3 hours may count as a quarter day if, during those hours, the non-custodial parent pays for routine expenses of the child, such as meals.

"Parenting Time Table A" assumes that as the number of visitation days approaches equal time sharing (143 days and above), certain costs usually incurred only in the custodial household are assumed to be substantially or equally shared by both parents. These costs are for items such as the child's clothing and personal care items, entertainment, and reading materials.

Parenting Time Table B: If, however, the assumption that such costs are duplicated and shared nearly equally by both parents, is proved incorrect, use "Parenting Time Table B" to calculate the visitation adjustment for this range of days (and check the box for "Table B" for item (26)).

PARENTING TIME TABLE A
Number of Visitation Days	Adjustment Percentage	Number of Visitation Days	Adjustment Percentage
0 – 3	0	116 – 129	.195
4 – 20	.012	130 – 142	.253
21– 38	.031	143 – 152	.307
39 - 57	.050	153 – 162	.362
58 - 72	.085	163 - 172	.422
73 - 87	.105	173 – 182	.486
88 - 115	.161

PARENTING TIME TABLE B
Number of Visitation Days	Adjustment Percentage
143 - 152	.275
153 – 162	.293
163 – 172	.312
173 - 182	.331

(27)

- For your entry for Item (27), add up the total parenting time days for the non-custodial parent.
- Determine whether Table A or Table B applies.
- Look at the appropriate table (“A” or “B”) and find the “Percentage Adjustment” that applies to the number of parenting time days.
- Multiply that percentage by the amount listed for Item (16)

EXAMPLE:

If the total amount of parenting time for the NON-CUSTODIAL parent amounts to 75 days and Table A applies, and the amount listed for Item (16), the Basic Child Support Obligation, is $1000: Look at Table A to see in where “75” fits in. “75” falls between 73 and 87 days, and the Adjustment Percentage listed for that range of numbers is .105. You would then take the dollar amount listed for Item (16), and multiply it by that percentage.

In this example that would be:	Amount from Item (16)	$1000
	x Adjustment Percent from Table	x .105
	Answer for Item (27)	105.00 or $105.00

This is the amount you would enter as your answer for Item (27) for either the Father or the Mother (ONLY), whichever parent the children don't live with the majority of the time.

MEDICAL INSURANCE PREMIUM ADJUSTMENT

- (28) If the parent who will be ordered to make the child support payment is the same parent who will pay the children's health, dental and/or vision care insurance premiums, enter the amount from Item 17 here.

NON-CUSTODIAL CHILD CARE ADJUSTMENT

- (29) If the parent who will be ordered to make the child support payments pays for work-related child-care during periods of visitation, enter the amount from Item 18.

EXTRA EDUCATION ADJUSTMENT

- (30) If the parent who will be ordered to make the child support payment is the same parent who will pay the children's reasonable and necessary expenses for attending private or special schools, enter the amount from Item 19 here.

EXTRAORDINARY/SPECIAL NEEDS CHILD

- (31) If the parent who will be ordered to make the child support payment is the same parent who will pay the special needs of gifted or handicapped child(ren), enter the amount from Item 20 here.

ADJUSTMENTS SUBTOTAL

- (32) For the non-custodial parent, add the amounts entered in Items 27, 28, 29, 30 and 31. Enter the total in Item 32.

PRELIMINARY CHILD SUPPORT AMOUNT

- (33) For non-custodial parent: Subtract the amount in Item 32 from Item 25.
For custodial parent: Write in the amount from Item 25 for that parent.

SELF SUPPORT RESERVE TEST for Parent Who Will Pay Support

- (34) To calculate the amount to enter in the column for this item:
- Enter the paying parent's adjusted gross income from Item 14.
 - Subtract $775 (the self-support reserve amount).
 - Enter the remainder in the appropriate column for either the Father or the Mother, for Item 34. [Guidelines 15]

If the resulting amount is less than the preliminary child support amount, the court may reduce the current child support order to the resulting amount after first considering the financial impact the reduction would have on the custodial household. The test applies only to the current support obligation, but does not prohibit an additional amount to be ordered to reduce an obligor's (the person obligated to pay) arrears. Absent a deviation, the preliminary child support amount or the result of the self-support reserve test is the amount of the child support to be ordered in Item 35
[Guidelines 15]

Payor's Adjusted Gross Income from Item 14: _____

SUBTRACT the Self Support Reserve Test Amount of $775: - $ 775.00 _____

Enter the number remaining as your answer for Item 34: _____

- (35) Who pays and how much? Check the appropriate box to indicate which parent will be ordered to pay child support and write in the same dollar amount shown in Item 34 for each.

RESPONSIBILITY FOR VISITATION-RELATED TRAVEL EXPENSES

- (36) For this Item, list the percentage you think each parent should pay toward the travel/transportation costs for expenses involving travel of more than 100 miles, one-way. The court will decide how to allocate the expense, but you may use the percentages listed in Item 24 for each parent's share of combined income as a guide. The allocation of expense does not change the amount of the support ordered in Item 35. [Guidelines 18]

RESPONSIBILITY FOR MEDICAL EXPENSES NOT PAID BY INSURANCE

- (37) For this Item, list the percentage you think each parent should pay toward uninsured medical, dental and/or vision care expenses for the children. The court will decide how to allocate the expense, but you may use the percentages listed in Item 24 for each parent's share of combined income as a guide. [Guidelines 9.A.]

WHEN YOU HAVE COMPLETED THIS WORKSHEET:

If you have completed this worksheet to establish a child support obligation:

- Make a copy of the worksheet for your records;
- Make a copy to send or deliver to the other party and/or the state prior to the hearing;
- Take the original to court at the time of your hearing; and
- Take financial documentation to provide proof of the numbers you have given.

If you have completed this worksheet to modify a child support obligation:

- Attach any documentation required;
- Make a copy of the worksheet for your records;
- Make a copy of the worksheet to serve on the other party and/or the state; and
- Attach the original worksheet to the Request for Modification of Child Support and file it with the Clerk of Superior Court.

NOTE: DEVIATION FROM THE GUIDELINES AMOUNT

If you believe the amount of child support shown by this worksheet is too low or too high, the Court has the power to deviate from the guidelines (order support in a different amount), if an order would be unjust or inappropriate. A deviation can only be ordered if the court makes appropriate findings based upon evidence presented by either party or agreement of the parties. [Guidelines 20]

ALTERNATIVE DISPUTE RESOLUTION (ADR)
STATEMENT TO THE COURT-- FAM CT

Procedures: When and How to Use the ADR Statement to the Court

On December 1, 2001, a change in the Arizona Rules of Civil Procedure (A.R.C.P. 16(g) imposed a duty on parties in any dispute before the courts to talk to each other (by telephone or in person) about the possibility of settlement and about whether some type of ADR (Alternative Dispute Resolution) process might help them to reach settlement. The Rule requires the parties to report to the court that they have discussed settlement or ADR, to inform the court about which ADR process (if any) they prefer, and when they expect to complete the process. Some of the various forms of ADR are explained on the following pages.

After a response is filed . . .

- (1) The Respondent must then immediately mail or deliver a blank copy of the ADR statement (and these instructions) to the Petitioner along with a copy of the response that was filed. (If either party is represented by an attorney, all communications should be sent directly to the attorney.)
- (2) The parties must meet (in person or by telephone), within 90 days of the filing of the response with the court (not the date the response is delivered to the petitioner). If you have not discussed these matters with the other party as required, be prepared to explain to the court the reasons. ("Inconvenience" is not an acceptable reason.)
- (3) Within 30 days AFTER you meet, and NOT LATER THAN 120 DAYS AFTER THE DATE THE RESPONSE WAS ORIGINALLY FILED WITH THE CLERK OF COURT you must file the "Alternative Dispute Resolution Statement to the Court."

You may file earlier, but not later than 30 days after discussing your ADR options with the other party. If you cannot agree to file together on one form (jointly), then you must both file your own forms separately. If you have not discussed these matters as required, you must file your separate forms within 120 days after the date the Response was filed. There is no charge for this filing. Keep a copy of the completed form for your records.

GO TO THE COURT TO FILE YOUR PAPERS: The Court is open from 8am-5pm, Monday-Friday. You should go to the court at least two hours before it closes. You may file your court papers at the following Superior Court locations:

INFORMATION ABOUT ADR (ALTERNATIVE DISPUTE RESOLUTION) PROCESSES

ADR is any peaceful alternative to the courtroom process that helps parties in court disputes reach settlement without having the judge decide all issues. Court sponsored ADR programs are currently available at no extra cost, or you may choose to hire a private ADR provider at your own expense. There are different types of ADR processes, several of which, including mediation, arbitration, and settlement conferences, are explained below.

The purpose of ADR is to encourage settlement of family court cases.

Benefits of ADR include, but are not limited to:

- ADR provides parties opportunity to resolve disputes more quickly and less expensively than a full trial.
- ADR provides parties more control over the outcome in a negotiated settlement.
- ADR provides parties greater satisfaction with results than litigation.
- ADR provides parties a greater chance of establishing or maintaining a working relationship.

COURT SPONSORED ADR OPTIONS (There is currently no extra charge for these services.)

MEDIATION OR OPEN NEGOTIATION through CONCILIATION SERVICES of child custody or parenting time (formerly “visitation”), are court-sponsored ADR alternatives where parties work with a neutral third party (the “mediator” or “negotiator”) to reach mutual agreement on future parenting responsibilities. Parents choosing to mediate or negotiate through Conciliation Services are required to attend a minimum number of mediation sessions.

Mediation offers parents an opportunity to make their own decisions about their child(ren)’s future care. The mediator, a neutral counselor, works with parties to reach agreement regarding custody and/or parenting time. Mediation conferences are private and confidential. Nothing said or written during mediation may be disclosed unless all parties to the mediation give their consent. The mediator helps parents identify their child(ren)’s needs and each parent’s ability to meet those needs, by restructuring family relationships. Together, they generate options and consider choices to develop a workable parenting plan that meet the child(ren)’s best interests. Parties who reach agreement in mediation have a 14 day “objection period” to raise any concerns or points of confusion contained in the agreement. If no objections are raised, the Parenting Plan is adopted as an order of the court, which makes it binding on the parties.

Open negotiation is a process similar to mediation, in that the negotiator helps parties identify their child(ren)’s needs, and how they will meet those needs in the future. However, open negotiation is NOT confidential. Parties meet with the negotiator to try to resolve their differences. If they are unable to agree, the negotiator may give feedback to the court on areas of agreement and disagreement. In addition, attorneys are entitled to be present in open negotiation sessions, if they so choose.

SETTLEMENT CONFERENCES are pre-trial meetings between the parties, their attorneys (if represented) and the conference officer, where they attempt to settle all issues in dispute before going to trial. The judicial officer helps parties evaluate the strengths and weaknesses of their case and may also suggest ways to resolve disputed matters, but they will not decide the case or make recommendations to the Court.

PRIVATE PROVIDER OPTIONS (You are responsible for all costs.)

In Private Mediation, parties work with a neutral third party (the mediator), who helps them identify their needs and explore viable options to settle all issues surrounding their Family Court case, including custody, parenting time, child support, property division, etc. With the aid of the mediator, the parties can determine the outcome of their case. A roster of private mediator is available through the Court’s Self-Service Center. You can access the Family Court Mediator Rosters at:

Phoenix – 101 West Jefferson, 1st Fl. M – F, 7:30am – 5:00pm
Mesa – 222 East Javelina, 1st Fl. M – F, 8:00am – 5:00pm
Surprise- 14264 West Tierra Buena Lane, M – F, 8:00 am – 5:00 pm
North Phoenix – 18380 North 40th Street, M – F, 8:00 am – 5:00 pm

In Private Settlement Conference, the ADR neutral helps parties reach settlement by taking a more directive approach than in mediation. The neutral will focus on the conflict’s legal issues, realistically evaluating case strengths and weaknesses, and actively suggesting and weighing options for the parties to consider, as they attempt to resolve their case.

In Private Arbitration your case is submitted to one or more neutral individuals, who after receiving evidence and hearing arguments have the power to make a decision resolving the dispute (unlike mediation, where the mediator does not make a decision for the parties). In arbitration, parties may limit the range of issues to be decided or the scope of relief to be awarded and arbitration may be binding or non-binding. When parties agree to binding-arbitration, the arbitrator's decision is final; it can be enforced by the court and may not be appealable. When arbitration is non-binding, the arbitrator's decision is advisory and will be final only if parties agree to adopt it. . Some arbitration providers are listed in the Yellow Pages under "Arbitration Services".

Private Judging involves hiring an individual, usually an experienced attorney or former judge, to act as a judge in your case. The person acting as judge listens to each party present their case and makes a decision. The decision is usually legally binding (has the force of law) but may be advisory (a suggested solution), depending on what the parties agree to in advance. Attorneys may be consulted at any time. The proceedings are private and confidential. The decision may be made part of a court judgment or ruling as well.

OTHER PRIVATE OPTIONS: Private ADR providers may offer additional options or variations on those already described. Some may also offer evening or weekend hours or other conveniences. Some churches or other religious or social service organizations may also offer family counseling, arbitration or mediation services. You may also find additional providers listed in the Maricopa County Directory of Human Services and Self-Help Support Groups, available at public libraries or by phone at 602-263-8856.

You may also find private providers in the Yellow Pages under "Arbitration" and "Mediation." Be aware that there are differences among private providers. While some are trained specialists, counselors, and attorneys, others are not. There are no licensing or minimal educational requirements to advertise as a mediator, arbitrator, or alternative dispute resolution provider.

As with hiring any private business for service, we recommend asking friends and relatives for referrals for any of the services mentioned above. You are responsible for all costs involved in using private providers.
